Helpful Training Guidelines

- If a puppy exercises or plays too much prior to attending Puppy Preschool classes he may fall asleep and may not be receptive to training. On the other hand, if the puppy has been at home all day with minimal activity he should be exercised before taken to Puppy Preschool classes so that he is calm and focused. Owners should use their discretion when deciding if exercise is required prior to attending Puppy Preschool classes
- Do not tease or play games that encourage play biting by using hands
- Only train the puppy when she is calm and in a very quiet environment. You can practice training techniques in environments that are slightly more distracting later on
- Keep training sessions short and stop before the puppy gets tired
- Once the puppy responds well indoors, you can begin practicing outdoors
- Always pay attention to the puppy's state of mind. Never give a verbal cue if the puppy is so distracted that he will not be able to respond.
